

DURSTON 20T HYDRAULIC PRESS

SKU: 1211

The Durston 20-Ton Manual Hydraulic Press, a powerhouse for jewellery workshops, expertly designed for both strength and precision in metalworking. This tool is an ideal choice for professionals seeking to enhance their metal-forming capabilities with efficiency and accuracy.

- 20-Ton Capacity: Ideal for a range of metal forming tasks, including pressing and embossing.
 - User-Friendly Operation: Hand-operated system for quick, efficient adjustments.
 - Familiar Mechanism: Operates using a 20-ton bottle jack (Included), a system well-known and easy for many users to operate.
 - Durable Steel Construction: Ensures long-lasting performance and reliability.
-

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The Durston 20-Ton Manual Hydraulic Press, stands as a robust and essential tool in jewellery workshops, skillfully built to provide both strength and precision in metalworking. This press is a top choice for professionals who aim to elevate their metal-forming processes with a tool that combines efficiency and accuracy.

With its impressive 20-ton capacity, it is perfectly suited for a wide array of metal forming tasks, including pressing and embossing, making it a versatile addition to any workshop. The user-friendly operation is a significant advantage, featuring a hand-operated system that allows for quick and efficient adjustments, streamlining your workflow and increasing productivity.

The construction of the press does not compromise on quality. Made with durable steel, it promises long-lasting performance and reliability. This durability ensures that the press can withstand the rigours of daily use in a busy workshop, maintaining its functionality and effectiveness over time.

Dimensions: 460 x 200 x 690mm